A friend, a workmate or a fellow parishioner may have said this to you: “Don’t give me that attitude.” You yourself may have uttered something similar to a family member: “I don’t like your attitude.”

What that means is the person being referred to is either rude, discourteous, disrespectful, ungrateful or just have a negative outlook on life.

Having the right attitude is important. Charles Swindoll, an evangelist said, “The longer I live, the more I realize the impact of attitude on life. Attitude, to me, is more important than facts. It is more important than the past, than education, than money, than circumstances, than failures, than successes”

Right attitude is certainly more important than beauty, knowledge, skill or accomplishment. A bad attitude can break a company, fracture a community or split a family. The amazing thing is we have a choice regarding the attitude we put on each day. We cannot change the past. It’s over and gone. We cannot change how people act. It’s their choice. What we can change is our attitude. It is said that life is 10% what happens to you and 90% how you react to it. We are in charge of our attitudes.

We can choose to be grateful, honest and humble. In the gospel last Tuesday, Jesus wants to teach us about the basic attitude of a servant. A servant does what is expected of him. Jesus’ intention was to correct the way the scribes and Pharisees relate with God. They performed their religious duties in the hope of getting special reward and better treatment in His kingdom. In the process, they act arrogant and look down on others. That’s just plain bad attitude. As my good friend Vangie likes to say, “How rude!”

There is a poignant story told about St. Bernadette of Souibours (1844-1879), the girl to whom the Blessed Mother appeared in Lourdes, France. After the apparitions she lived in obscurity as a contemplative nun. A journalist was able to track her down and eventually got permission to interview her. One question that the journalist asked of her was why she chose to live in obscurity when she could have capitalized on her popularity and lived a comfortable life. In answer Bernadette compared herself to a broom which after it had been used to clean the house, is put away in the closet. Since she had accomplished what God has asked of her, she had been put aside and had chosen to do so in joy. So let us continue what we are doing for God, the church, community and family without fanfare. “We are unprofitable servants; we have done what we were obliged to do.”

You are invited to bring bread to be blessed on Thanksgiving Day. Mass is at 10AM.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

We are faced with strong and disturbing readings today that hold a certain fascination, since they seem at first glance to be blueprints for future inevitable wars and hardship. A fundamentalist interpretation focuses on this aspect. Yet we hear them at our Sunday celebration of the Eucharist, which infuses them with hope and optimism. Rather than dreading the future, today's liturgy assures us that God is with us in all of life's inevitable trials, and that we have a role in shaping the outcome of human history. Occasionally, some Christians have attempted to decode these readings for an exact measure of the world's end, but they have thus far been disappointed.

"Nothing lasts forever" is a lyric from a Broadway show. Stars fall from the sky, leaves wither and fall, mountains wash into the sea, human projects and governments totter and collapse with great regularity. Today's liturgy opposes this idea as incomplete, reminding us that Christ has made a permanent change in human history, and that life in him is life forever. Rather than inviting us to throw in the towel, today's liturgy strengthens us for acts of goodness and grace in our families, communities, and world.

Formed
We invite you to join FORMED. It is a most useful tool for the Catholic Church in learning more about the faith. It’s an excellent resource for catechesis and faith formation.

You can easily access this so-called “Netflix of the Catholic Church” by going to the website or download the free app on your phone.

Go to FORMED.org and click on register, enter the free parish code, YXK8DY, your email and create a password.

Explore, study, listen or read to deepen your faith!
The word “persevere” means to persist in anything undertaken in spite of difficulty or obstacles, to continue steadfastly. It means a type of daily martyrdom, a dying to self especially when confusion and temptation call us to an easier path, one less strife ridden. This lack of steadfastness is exhibited when we are tempted to overcommit to something, letting distractions and hindrances keep us from doing what we ought. How many times when trying to pray will the phone ring or someone else need our attention? Often when going to church, traffic will seemingly slow, people will block our path or weather will distract us. It is always easier to give up, than to try to persevere. These small martyrs can be seen even in the church. Disgruntled parishioners will verbalize disagreement with the magisterium, the Pope and even priests. Otherwise perfectly pleasant people will voice their discontent openly claiming their unhappiness is the fault of the church. They state their personal opposition to abortion, euthanasia, same sex unions, embryonic stem cell research, but insist that they will not impose their beliefs on others. All of these issues have been addressed by our church. This disunity among Catholics causes scandal. This descent hampers our ability to witness to the world as a faith filled people. If we could only put aside our differences, and persevere in being counter cultural, we could reclaim our rightful place as the leading church in America.

“By your perseverance, you will secure your lives.”
Luke 21: 5-19

La palabra "perseverar" significa persistir en todo lo que se emprenda a pesar de las dificultades u obstáculos, para continuar con firmeza. Significa un tipo de martirio diario, una muerte a sí mismo, especialmente cuando la confusión y la tentación nos llaman a un camino más fácil, una lucha menos montada. Esta falta de firmeza se exhibe cuando estamos tentados a comprometernos demasiado con algo, dejando que las distracciones y los obstáculos nos impidan hacer lo que debemos. ¿Cuántas veces al intentar orar sonará el teléfono o alguien más necesitará nuestra atención? A menudo, al ir a la iglesia, el tráfico parece ser más lento, la gente bloqueará nuestro camino o el clima nos distraerá. Siempre es más fácil rendirse que tratar de perseverar. Estos pequeños martirios se pueden ver incluso en la iglesia. Los feligreses descontentos verbalizarán el desacuerdo con el magisterio, el Papa e incluso los sacerdotes. De lo contrario, las personas perfectamente agradables expresarán abiertamente su descontento alegando que su infelicidad es culpa de la iglesia. Declaran su oposición personal al aborto, la eutanasia, las uniones del mismo sexo, la investigación con células madre embrionarias, pero insisten en que no impondrán sus creencias a los demás. Todos estos problemas han sido abordados por nuestra iglesia. Esta desunión causa escándalo. Este descenso obstaculiza nuestra capacidad de testimoniar al mundo como personas llenas de fe. Si pudieriéramos dejar de lado nuestras diferencias y perseverar en ser contraculturales, podríamos reclamar nuestro lugar legítimo como la iglesia líder en Estados Unidos.

“Por tu perseverancia, asegurarás tus vidas.”
Lucas 21: 5-19
