He has Risen

Christ is risen! He is risen, indeed! This Paschal greeting is customary in Eastern Catholic and Orthodox churches on Easter Sunday. Then there is Saint Augustine’s acclamation of joy. We are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song! However, you express it, Easter is the time for rejoicing because Jesus Christ, our friend and brother, is risen from the dead. And yet today’s scriptures are less joyful than one would expect for the most important feast in the Christian calendar. Perhaps we are being asked to look deeper into the mystery of the Resurrection, just as Peter went into the tomb to look deeper into the mystery of its emptiness.

Mary Magdalene, who loved the Lord so much that she risked everything, possibly even her life, to go to the tomb before daybreak, finds the stone rolled away and assumes that someone has taken Jesus’ body. Frightened and sad, she runs to tell Peter and John. They all run back to the tomb, but what do they expect to see? Peter enters the tomb and sees. John enters, sees, and believes. But what does he believe? Scripture states, “For they did not yet understand the scripture that he had rise from the dead” (Jn 20:9). They went home, not really knowing what had happened. But John ‘believed’ something. Something happened. What do we believe?

Somewhere between that Easter morning and Peter’s confident teaching about Jesus in the reading from Acts of the Apostles, something (the Risen Christ) happened. Peter has evolved from his bewilderment into a witness to the Resurrection.

What are we to find in the empty tomb? Maybe the Colossians reading has an answer. By entering the empty tomb of our lies to seek the Lord, we see, we believe, we die, to be raised with Christ. “For you have died, and your life is hidden with Chris in God” (Col 3:3). And we will rise in glory with him.

A Resusitado

¡Cristo ha resucitado! ¡Él ha resucitado! Este saludo pascual es habitual en las iglesias católicas y ortodoxas orientales el Domingo de Pascua. Luego está la aclamación jubilosa de San Agustín. ¡Somos un pueblo de Pascua y Aleluya es nuestra canción! De la manera que lo expreses, la Pascua es el momento de regocijarse porque Jesucristo, nuestro amigo y hermano, ha resucitado de la muerte. Y, sin embargo, las Escrituras de hoy son menos jubilosas de lo que cabría esperar para la fiesta más importante del calendario cristiano. Quizás se nos pide que profundicemos en el misterio de la Resurrección, así como Pedro entró en la tumba para profundizar en el misterio de su vacío.

María Magdalena, que amaba tanto al Señor que arriesgó todo, posiblemente incluso su vida, para ir a la tumba antes del amanecer, encuentra la piedra rodada y asume que alguien se ha llevado el cuerpo de Jesús. Asustada y triste, corre para contarles a Peter y John. Todos corren de regreso a la tumba, pero ¿qué esperan ver? Pedro entra en la tumba y ve. Juan entra, ve y cree. ¿Pero qué cree él? La Escritura dice: "Porque aún no entendían la Escritura de que había resucitado de entre los muertos" (Jn 20, 9). Se fueron a casa, sin saber realmente lo que había sucedido. Pero Juan "creyó" algo.

Algo pasó. En que creemos. En algún lugar entre esa mañana de Pascua y la enseñanza confiada de Pedro sobre Jesús en la lectura de Hechos de los Apóstoles, sucedió algo (Cristo resucitado). Pedro ha evolucionado desde su desconcierto hasta ser testigo de la Resurrección.

¿Qué debemos encontrar en la tumba vacía? Tal vez la lectura de Colosenses tiene una respuesta. Al entrar en la tumba vacía de nuestras mentiras para buscar al Señor, vemos, creemos, morimos, para ser resucitados con Cristo. “Porque has muerto y tu vida está escondida con Cristo en Dios” (Col 3:3). Y resucitaremos en la gloria con él.

Catechism Corner by Kacey Carey, DRE

Easter is a little more disorienting this year. We are without our familiar liturgies, songs, church environment, Confession and worst of all, the Eucharist. We have all had ample opportunity to contemplate life without our church and the new normal. But that still makes us want to have Jesus again with us. It is said that this separation from church has caused a spiritual renewal of faith in Catholicism. Eternal Word Television Network says their audience has increased by ninety percent. Relevant Radio (1260AM) echoes the same refrain, stating more people are tuning in, making mass and the rosary a daily priority. It seems during a crisis; the human heart knows where to turn. There are several ways to counteract this anxiety and stave off depression. Firstly, start a Divine Mercy novena on Good Friday. This novena has the power to grant all intercessors a plenary indulgence, thus forgiving temporal sin permanently. If we are late in starting, we can double up days as long as we finish by Holy Saturday. We can also say this novena year-round for our deceased relatives, who in turn will intercede for our needs. Secondly, we can visit the Blessed Sacrament, which amazingly stays open 24/7 at St. Bruno’s. We can contemplate Jesus and offer him solace during these troubling times. Thirdly, we can watch the stations of the cross live streaming from our church via YouTube. Let us use these three ways of seeking peace during these tumultuous times. Let us revere our Catholic faith as a beacon of light like no other. It has sustained us during strife and will sustain us once again.

"The access to heaven is through desire. He who longs to be there really is there in spirit. The path to heaven is measured by desire and not by miles."
