Jesus said to Thomas, “Have you come to believe because you have seen me? Blessed are those who have not seen and have believed.”
~ John 20:29
St. Bruno Parish is a multi-cultural community, founded in 1912, that welcomes everyone to worship God, especially through the Holy Eucharist and Perpetual Adoration, to grow in the faith and to serve the less fortunate in order to be light and truth for others.

Second Sunday of Easter

Poor Thomas. Singled out from among the disciples because he refused to believe what they were telling him—that they had seen, in the flesh, their friend and their Lord, Jesus Christ. Can any of us really blame him? All of the disciples were terrified, crestfallen, hiding. But what of Thomas? Just where was he when Jesus appeared the first time to the group huddled in fear? He had gone “out”—out of the community where his faith had life.

Maybe this was actually a blessing for Thomas and not the curse associated with the “doubting Thomas” moniker bestowed on him by tradition. Oh, the divine mercy of the Lord! Could Thomas be the forerunner of all of us who come in fragile hope and uncertainty to the Christian community, so beautifully described in the reading from the Acts of the Apostles? Could Thomas be an ultimate exemplar of the faith described in the First Letter of Peter?

YOU SHOULD’VE BEEN THERE!

Most of us have had the misfortune of missing something important simply by being absent, and then hearing about what happened. In today’s reading, unique to John’s Gospel, Thomas is the only apostle who was not around when Jesus appeared to his friends for the first time after his death and resurrection. They were frightened and grieving, not knowing what would happen to them. Remember, they found themselves to be fugitives, seemingly guilty by association with a criminal executed by government officials. Suddenly, Jesus was with them, beaming peace and mercy to his fragile followers. What joy! What a shock, too!

We will never know why Thomas had left their hiding place. All we know is that he returned to wild stories about Jesus being alive after dying a brutal death. He must have thought that the other apostles in their grief had a shared delusion of what they wished were true. When Thomas finally saw Jesus, he gave what is considered the most profound profession of faith: “My Lord and my God!” In his tender mercy, Jesus ministered to Thomas by helping him to see for himself.

WE WALK BY FAITH

But what of us? The early Christian community could only trust the words of these same apostles, the ones Thomas couldn’t believe, when they preached Jesus Christ risen from the dead. Who could believe what they said? The Holy Spirit, breathed upon the disciples in that first encounter, emanated so powerfully from them that they were able to convene seemingly utopian communities of faith. Filled with “divine mercy,” their lives became an evangelization to the world.

And this is how we too are sent out, like the disciples, filled with the Holy Spirit and bearing the Lord’s peace and mercy to a troubled, suffering world. The wounds of Jesus are very real today in the needy and broken. May we always work to bind up those wounds wherever we find them.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Kindly be informed that the First Communion masses originally scheduled on May 9 and the Confirmation mass on May 10 are indefinitely postponed because of the uncertainty caused by the coronavirus.

We will notify you of further developments as soon as we get clearer guidelines from the governor and from the Archbishop.

This is the schedule of livestream masses during the shelter-in-place order:

1. Sunday, 12NN
2. Monday-Friday 9AM
3. Saturday (Spanish): 7PM
4. If another priest is doing the 7PM mass, there will be a 9AM mass on Saturday morning.

GET REAL!

Those of us who flatter ourselves that we have a “realistic” view of the world may listen to the first reading today and say, “Get real!” when we hear Luke’s account of the early, Elysian days of the Christian movement. All seems to be rosy, lots of wonders are performed, everyone shares selflessly, they eat together in “exultation,” and the Lord added to their numbers? Well, who wouldn’t be attracted to a group like this? From the wind that swept through the upper room at Pentecost as the Spirit of God blew over the face of the waters in Genesis, and the fire that appeared over each disciple as the light appeared at the dawn of creation, Luke’s intent in Acts is to show a new creation, a restoration of creation’s original goodness through the working of the Holy Spirit. It is the Spirit who continues to make us into the Body of Christ. We may occasionally, like Thomas in the Gospel, say, “Get real!” but our ultimate reality in the Spirit is to work continually to make our Christian community a new creation, one in which others will find God’s joy and beauty.

How is it possible God can forgive all our sins with a simple novena? Surely everyone would want to take advantage of this great grace. Most people who have a Divine Mercy devotion know that this is a "get out of jail free card". If you live on the moon and not aware that this favor ends on the Sunday after Easter (April 19), get moving. Even if our sins be as scarlet, we can be granted a reprieve by simply saying the nine day novena, confessing before or after and receiving Communion on Divine Mercy Sunday. This year because the sacraments are not available to us, we can make a spiritual communion and say an act of perfect contrition during a virtual mass. The plenary indulgence is extended until we can once again avail ourselves of the sacraments. This powerful novena can remove all our or our deceased relatives temporal punishment for sins. Each of the nine days has a different group of people for which to pray but covers everyone we know or will know. It starts with all mankind, sinners, religious, faithful, children, lukewarm souls, atheists, those who venerate God’s Mercy and those who have separated themselves from the Church. Basically everyone whom you know and those whom you do not yet know. But it all hinges on making a good Confession eventually which is the gateway to all the sacraments. Although Baptism cleanses us from sin, it does not free us from human weakness and the inclination to sin. That is why we need a place where we can be reconciled with God again and again. Oh please let us get to Confession soon so that this great grace can be fully realized. "Besides God’s mercy there is no other source of hope for mankind." St. John Paul II

¿Cómo es posible que Dios pueda perdonar todos nuestros pecados con una simple novena? Seguramente todos desearían aprovechar esta gran gracia. La mayoría de las personas que tienen una devoción a la Divina Misericordia saben que esta es una "tarjeta para salir de la cárcel". Si vives en la luna y no sabes que este favor termina el domingo después de Pascua (19 de abril), muévete. Incluso si nuestros pecados son de color escarlata, se nos puede conceder un aplazamiento simplemente diciendo la novena de nueve días, confesando antes o después y recibiendo la Comunión el Domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Este año, debido a que los sacramentos no están disponibles para nosotros, podemos hacer una comunión espiritual y decir un acto de contrición perfecta durante una misa virtual. La indulgencia plenaria se extiende hasta que podamos nuevamente aprovechar los sacramentos. Esta poderosa novena puede eliminar a todos nuestros pacientes fallecidos o castigos temporales por los pecados. Cada uno de los nueve días tiene un grupo diferente de personas por las cuales orar, pero cubre a todos los que conocemos o conoceremos. Comienza con toda la humanidad, pecadores, religiosos, fieles, niños, almas tibias, ateos, aquellos que veneran la Misericordia de Dios y aquellos que se han separado de la Iglesia. Básicamente todos los que conoces y los que aún no conoces. Pero todo depende de hacer una buena Confesión, que eventualmente es la puerta de entrada a todos los sacramentos. Aunque el bautismo nos limpia del pecado, no nos libera de la debilidad humana y la inclinación al pecado. Es por eso que necesitamos un lugar donde podamos reconciliarnos con Dios una y otra vez. Oh, por favor, comenzemos pronto con la Confesión para que esta gran gracia pueda realizarse plenamente. "Además de la misericordia de Dios, no hay otra fuente de esperanza para la humanidad". San Juan Pablo II
