John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, “Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world.”

John 1:29
St. Bruno Parish is a multi-cultural community, founded in 1912, that welcomes everyone to worship God, especially through the Holy Eucharist and Perpetual Adoration, to grow in the faith and to serve the less fortunate in order to be light and truth for others.

NEVER TOO LATE
John the Baptist models for us the grace of littleness. Twice in today’s Gospel reading, John admits, “I did not know.” Even though John has ordered his entire life toward the goal of preparing the world for the Messiah, he does not, on his own, recognize Christ when he sees him. The Gospel insists John “did not know” Jesus; in his humility, John relies entirely on God for direction. John waits and waits—baptizing, praying, preaching—until, finally, the Holy Spirit reveals the Messiah.

John had waited his whole life for this confirmation from the Spirit. God’s chosen people, the Israelites, had waited much, much longer. Surely many wondered if God would ever send the Messiah as promised. But God is never late. In our littleness, we cannot see the arc of all human history with God’s clarity and love. Each of us aches deeply for some good thing: a cure, a resolution, a rest, a fair break. When we are made to wait for what seems obviously beneficial, we sometimes wonder if God is really as all-powerful and all-loving as people say. Today’s readings invite us to trust.

Catechism Corner by Kacey Carey, DRE

The recognition of Jesus as the Lamb of God ties
Baptism with Confirmation as sacraments of initiation. If you are as puzzled as I am why John would say "I did not know him", welcome to the club. After all were not Jesus and John cousins? It proves to us, his authenticity, as Jesus is freshly revealed as the Messiah, the one for whom we have been waiting. But how many of us receive him worthily? All sacraments are only valid or effective if we receive them in a state of grace. By a serious sin a person separates himself from God and can only be reconciled by making a good confession. We can fully receive the gift of grace if our souls are clean of the stains of sins. To receive most sacraments means to make a covenant with God. We say "Yes, I believe in you, my God, give me your Holy Spirit, so that I might belong entirely to you, never be separated, and may witness to you throughout my whole life in my words and deeds, on good days and bad." God responds with" yes I believe in you my child, I will give you my Spirit, my very self, I belong entirely to you. I will never separate myself from you, in this life or eternally in the next. I will be in your body and your soul, in your words and deeds. Even if you forget me, I will still be there - on good days and bad." "Create in me a clean heart, O God, and put a new and right spirit within me." Ps. 51:12

El reconocimiento de Jesús como el cordero de Dios ata Bautismo con Confirmación como sacramentos de iniciación. Si estás tan perplejo como yo por qué John diría "No lo conocía", bienvenido al club. Después de todo, ¿no eran primos Jesús y Juan? Nos demuestra su autenticidad, ya que Jesús se revela recientemente como el Mesías, a quien hemos estado esperando. ¿Pero cuántos de nosotros lo recibimos dignamente? Todos los sacramentos solo son válidos o efectivos si los recibimos en un estado de gracia. Por un pecado grave, una persona se separa de Dios y solo puede reconciliarse haciendo un buen confesión. Podemos recibir completamente el don de la gracia si nuestras almas están limpias de las manchas de los pecados. Recibir la mayoría de los sacramentos significa hacer un pacto con Dios. Decimos "Sí, creo en ti, Dios mío, dame tu Espíritu Santo, para que pueda pertenecer completamente a ti, nunca estar separado, y pueda testificar durante toda mi vida en mis palabras y acciones, en los días buenos y mal." Dios responde con "sí, yocree en ti, hija mía, te daré mi Espíritu, yo mismo, te pertenezco por completo. Nunca me separaré de ti, en esta vida o eternamente en la próxima. Estaré en tu cuerpo y tu alma, en tus palabras y hechos. Incluso si me olvidas, seguiré allí, en días buenos y malos "." Crea en mí un corazón limpio, oh Dios, y pon un espíritu nuevo y correcto dentro de mí ".
Ps. 51:12
