We'll Pull Through
The Bay Area in under unprecedented lockdown. Residents are prohibited from leaving homes except for necessities and essential activities like going out for a breath of fresh air. Banks, restaurants and theaters are closed. Masses are private with only the priest and an altar server present; no one else. Confessions are regulated by the six-foot distance and ten-person at a time advisory. Such is the situation we are in for the next three weeks, at least. We'll pull through if we look out another, be considerate and understanding. If we take only what we need and not hoard, if we practice thriftiness and not excess, if we stay calm and not panic, we will be fine. We'll pull through. Not only will we pull through but the stay-in-shelter order can be a blessing in disguise. We all know how stressful life is with myriad of concerns to attend to, a long list of to-dos and deadlines to beat. Even meeting people, especially those who push our buttons, can be particularly stressful. Now, with the quarantine in place, we can just take our own pace, slow down, sit and relax, read good book, pray and meditate. We are given a pass from personal contact with people, even those who live with us. Just put out the hand and say with all candor, "stay right there. Don't come any close!"

That being said, we should be aware of the many people whose lives have been upended with the corona virus pandemic. They are not those who catch the virus, their families and the healthcare workers but also those who livelihood are affected, who lose their job as work come to a standstill.

Let's have them in our thoughts and prayers. And, if we know who's struggling because of this crisis, let's try be

Finally, here's a list of what's available at St. Brunos:
-Live-streamed Sunday mass(11AM) once the technology is in place.
-The adoration chapel is open
-Hot food and coffee for takeout from the shelter
-Candles in the waiting room rectory (9AM-12NN)
-Confessions on Saturday (3:30PM). Kindly bring your cellphone.

El Área de la Bahía está bajo un encierro no representado. Se prohíbe a los residentes salir de sus hogares, excepto por necesidades y actividades esenciales como salir a respirar aire fresco. Los bancos, restaurantes y teatros están cerrados. Las misas son privadas con solo el sacerdote y un servidor del altar presente; nadie también. Las confesiones están reguladas por la distancia de seis pies y el aviso de diez personas a la vez. Tal es la situación en la que nos encontramos durante las próximas tres semanas, al menos.

Saldremos adelante si miramos a otro, seamos considerados y comprensivos. Si tomamos solo lo que necesitamos y no atesoramos, si practicamos el ahorro y no el exceso, si mantenemos la calma y no entramos en pánico, estaremos bien.

Saldremos adelante.No solo saldremos adelante, sino que la orden de permanecer en el refugio puede ser una bendición disfrazada. Todos sabemos lo estresante que es la vida con una miriáda de preocupaciones a las que atender, una larga lista de tareas pendientes y plazos para vencer. Incluso conocer gente, especialmente aquellos que presionan nuestros botones, puede ser particularmente estresante. Ahora, con la cuarentena en su lugar, podemos seguir nuestro propio ritmo, reducir la velocidad, sentarnos y relajarnos, leer un buen libro, rezar y meditar. Nos dan un pase por contacto personal con personas, incluso con aquellos que viven con nosotros. Solo extienda la mano y diga con toda sinceridad: "quédese allí. ¡No se acerque!"

Dicho esto, debemos ser conscientes de las muchas personas cuyas vidas se han visto afectadas por la pandemia del virus de la corona. No son los que contraen el virus, sus familias y los trabajadores de la salud, sino también los que se ven afectados, que pierden su trabajo cuando el trabajo se detiene.

Vamos a tenerlos en nuestros pensamientos y oraciones. Y, si sabemos quién está luchando a causa de esta crisis, tratemos de ser más cariñosos y generosos, incluso si duele. Hay un lema que es muy apto: "vive simplemente para que otros puedan simplemente vivir". Ahora, eso es oración, sacrificio y limosna, la triple disciplina cuaresmal. No solo saldremos adelante. Este puede ser un momento de gracia.

El salmo responsorial de este cuarto domingo de Cuaresma, el muy querido Salmo 23, no podría haber llegado en un momento más oportuno. La respuesta es particularmente conmovedora: "El Señor es mi pastor; no hay nada que quiera". Lea todo el salmo en voz alta, deje que las palabras toquen su mente y se hundan en su corazón.

Estar en paz.San Pablo, en la segunda lectura, nos recuerda que una vez estabamos en la oscuridad pero ahora estamos en la luz.Nos anima a "vivir como hijos de luz" y a hacer "lo que agrada al Señor". "Podemos transformar esta corona de una corona ir a una corona de gloria.

Finalmente, aquí hay una lista de lo que está disponible en St. Brunos:
-Misa dominical en vivo (11AM) una vez que la tecnología esté en su lugar.
- La capilla de adoración está abierta.
- Comida caliente y café para llevar del refugio.
- Velas en la rectoría de la sala de espera (9 AM-12NN) _

Dear All,

In observance of a “shelter in place” order from the Governor, the Archbishop, after due consultation, has issued a new set of instructions, herewith attached.

What this means for us in St. Bruno’s, starting tomorrow until April 7, are:

Daily mass will be celebrated with only the priest and one altar server present.

Deacon Ramon is working on live-streaming the masses. Hopefully, this technology will be in place by Sunday, March 22. A step-by-step instruction will be given out how to access this.

Mass intentions accepted by the office will be fulfilled.

Announcement will be posted how to make spiritual communion for those who follow mass remotely (radio, television and internet).

With regards to requests for Sacramental communion, which I imagine there will be a strong desire, especially for Palm Sunday (April 5) I will consult with the Council, especially the Liturgy committee, how to accommodate such request “in a way that is in accord with the Health Offices’ order.”

The parish will respond to sick calls observing the hygienic procedure defined by the Archbishop. Confessions will be heard at an open space (not in the confessional box) observing the six feet rule.

The Chrism Mass is limited only to a small group of priests.

For baptisms, wedding and funerals, the 6-feet rule will be in place with no more than ten people in attendance.

“Palm Sunday falls within the time frame covered by the order.” The Archbishop will communicate with us in due time with some guidance.

More information:

- The adoration chapel will remain open.
- For the shelter, Peter informed me that breakfast will be provided for to-go only; no dine-in. Showers and mail pickups will still be available.
- The office is closed but we will try our best to answer the telephone.

Personally, I will do my best to respond to the pastoral needs of our people given my limitation since I’m highly susceptible to the virus due to pre-existing medical condition (pulmonary hypertension). Thanks.

Let’s continue to support one another, especially the sick and the caregivers.

Fr. Michael

Sight is one of the most important senses because vision enables us to navigate safely in a world littered with obstacles. Imagine being the man born blind and not knowing what the faces of your loved ones looked like. And further being a recipient of a miracle, at the hand of Jesus, seeing for the first time. The gospel came to life for me and our Confirmation program last weekend when Fr. Justin, a missionary priest gave a dynamic homily followed by meaningful role playing. He called on 3 volunteer students to stand in front of their classmates and the whole church. Each one was asked to portray God's love as part of the Trinity. God the Father volunteered first, the Holy Spirit last and God the Son volunteered secondly. The remarkable thing about the Son is that he was born blind. He volunteered immediately using his cane to navigate to the center aisle. He did not appear embarrassed or shy, but quickly and proudly stood for all to see. The unusual thing about teenagers is most seek anonymity, dread public recognition and especially when singled out by their peers. So for these teens to stand in front of their classmates and exemplify the Trinity, was a milestone. Lastly a homeless man came from the back of the church to stand in the middle of the three. The "Trinity" was asked to show God's love to the man. They quickly encircled him putting their arms around him and held this pose for 7 minutes. That homeless man probably felt God's love for the first time. This remarkable scenario allowed teens to overcome their inhibitions, and allowed a lonely homeless man to feel connected to total strangers. All felt God's love both in the grace to demonstrate his love and in the reception of his love.

"Lent is a time when we relive the Passion of Christ. Let it not be just a time when our feelings are roused, but let it be a change that comes through cooperation with God's grace in real sacrifices of self."
St. Teresa of Calcutta
